May 1st, 2nd & 3rd 2025
Application Form

Curators Notes and instructions

For this 7th edition of Together We Art, we would like to gather artists and art lovers around the theme of Interconnectivity.

In a fragmented world, Interconnectivity prompts us to explore the threads uniting us across social, artistic, and environmental spheres. Inspired by the mycelium network—where trees share resources and communicate underground—this 7th edition of Together We Art celebrates art's transformative power in fostering connection. Aligning with the values of LP4Y (Life Project 4 Youth), it highlights how collaboration fosters resilience and growth.

At its core, Interconnectivity reminds us that strength comes from unity, whether through community ties, artistic exchanges, or environmental stewardship. Each connection—social, intellectual, or spiritual—holds the potential to shape a shared future.

This edition calls for artworks that reflect and celebrate these interconnections; challenging boundaries and embracing the multitude of ways we connect with one another and the world around us. Artists are encouraged to explore this concept broadly—whether through personal narratives, collaborative processes, or reflections on the interdependent relationships between humanity and nature.

As LP4Y has shown, it is through being together that we truly thrive, and we look forward to discovering how each artist interprets the profound and multifaceted nature of Interconnectivity.
